

COWGIRL™

Inspiring the modern western lifestyle

cowgirlmagazine.com

Santa Barbara Style

RESORT FASHION FOR ANY AGE

6 STUNNING
ROOMS

FROM CABIN TO CONTEMPORARY

SPOT ON

WHY WE LOVE
APPALOOSAS

AS SEEN IN THE SEPT/OCT 2011 ISSUE OF

COWGIRL™
MAGAZINE

AT HOME IN ASPEN

PHOTOGRAPHY BY JENNIFER KOSKINEN
TEXT BY CALLAN LOESSBERG

ARCHITECTURE BY BREWSTER MCLEOD ARCHITECTS, INC.

AS SEEN IN THE SEPT/OCT 2011 ISSUE OF

COWGIRL™
MAGAZINE

THE ART OF SYMMETRY PERFECTLY EXPRESSED ENHANCES THE INTERIORS OF THIS WARM MOUNTAIN RETREAT. GOLDEN, CREAMY NEUTRALS IN AN ARRAY OF TEXTURES—WOOD, LEATHER, STONE, PLASTER, TEXTILES—ENSCONCE THE SENSES AND RELAX THE MIND WHILE KEEPING THE VIEW CENTER STAGE.

Elegant yet strong, refined, yet not overtly feminine, a hillside Aspen residence blends the best of all worlds. Towering windows and walls reminiscent of a buttery chardonnay are shored up by substantive stone accents, including a rugged floor to ceiling hearth. Contemporary, stylish greenery and extravagant flowers are balanced by natural elements like the European mount above the firebox and bronze wildlife sculpture. Contrast is key—gleaming silver tableware with elk accents roam a rustic planked table; substantial nail-head chairs are tamed when fashioned of soft caramel leather and blonde woods.

AS SEEN IN THE SEPT/OCT 2011 ISSUE OF

COWGIRLTM
MAGAZINE

A REFRESHING DEPARTURE FROM RICH BROWNS AND ROUGH-AND-READY LODGE FINISHES, THIS COOK'S KITCHEN WITH PLENTY OF ROOM FOR SHARING EVOKES TINGLES OF EUROPEAN PANACHE. Charming provincial window treatments and casual ivory cabinetry create a clean, fresh ambiance. Like the effortless yet inimitable accessorizing of a fashionable French woman, a triad of simple topiaries charms the expansive island. Mounted elk antlers above the cooktop maintain a masculine link with the home's western roots.

AS SEEN IN THE SEPT/OCT 2011 ISSUE OF

COWGIRL[™]
MAGAZINE

“ONE OF LIFE’S MOST DELICIOUS LUXURIES IS A
BATHTUB WITH A VIEW
AND A FIREPLACE.”

Personal space takes on a whole new meaning in this gleaming, sunlit spa temple with stunning mountain vistas. A jaunty striped valance over the tub, opulent his and hers vanities, a shower complete with bench seating and lovely, luxurious marble linking it all together invite relaxation and rejuvenation.

AS SEEN IN THE SEPT/OCT 2011 ISSUE OF

COWGIRLTM
MAGAZINE

VIEWMASTER: Though the home is 13,500 square feet, the architect's design allows for an intimate atmosphere, provided by human-scale settings throughout the majestic structure. Orientation on the site was critical to maximizing the value and beauty of the location; all primary rooms enjoy spectacular views. The breakfast room and kitchen face south to welcome the morning light while the great room enjoys a westerly view and the dramatic mountain sunsets. This residence is located in the exclusive Pyramid Point Estate at the Maroon Creek Club in Aspen Colorado.

Jamie L. Brewster McLeod, AIA
Brewster McLeod Architects, Inc.

ASPEN
117 South Monarch Street
P.O. Box 697, Aspen, Colorado
T 970.544.0130

TELLURIDE
126 South Oak St. #A, Telluride, Colorado
T 970.728.4300