

2026 TOP MOUNTAIN ARCHITECTS

Ta-da! Here they are, Mountain Living's 2026 Top Mountain Architects—the impressive firms designing the homes in the pages of this magazine. We compiled the list from recommendations we received from our readers, photographers, vendors and staff.

As the number of design professionals working in the Rocky Mountain West has grown, so has the number of firms on the list.

We've organized the list to be user-friendly, with architects listed by state and town; some architects have more than one office location, and we have listed only their primary corporate location. Professionals featured in Mountain Living during the past two years receive a special highlight that mentions their most recent projects in the magazine as of January/February 2026. Architects who have been featured in the past two years but are located outside of Mountain Living's territory are grouped together at the end of the list.

elegance achieved via an ever-green materials palette that includes gray Windsor stone and reclaimed, patinaed corral board siding. The exterior steel truss at the entrance hints at modern touches inside.
